

DALE E. MISAK MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Dale E. Misak was devoted to youth for many years through teaching, coaching, officiating, and also, as the League Commissioner for the South Central Border League. Academic achievement as well as honesty and sportsmanship were values he tried to pass on to the youth he encountered. Dale always encouraged students and athletes to do their best whether in the classroom, at a sporting event, or through involvement in their church or community. He will always be remembered for the words he used to start each race, "Good Luck and May God Be With Us."

This scholarship in Dale's memory is intended to recognize youth whose integrity, dedication, and high moral standards sets them apart from their peers. All students displaying these values are encouraged to apply. This scholarship is not based solely on academic achievement.
